

2 Corinthians

Week 3 (April 30): The Power of Church Forgiveness - 2 Cor. 2:5-11

Introduction

- Open your time in prayer and read the passage together.
- Give everyone 15 minutes to answer the five following questions:
Write your answers after each question.
- Take one question at a time and have people share their answers.
- End your time by sharing and praying for one another.

Passage:

⁵ Now if anyone has caused pain, he has caused it not to me, but in some measure—not to put it too severely—to all of you. ⁶ For such a one, this punishment by the majority is enough, ⁷ so you should rather turn to forgive and comfort him, or he may be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow. ⁸ So I beg you to reaffirm your love for him. ⁹ For this is why I wrote, that I might test you and know whether you are obedient in everything. ¹⁰ Anyone whom you forgive, I also forgive. Indeed, what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, has been for your sake in the presence of Christ, ¹¹ so that we would not be outwitted by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his designs.

-What stuck out to you in the passage? This might be something significant (facts, details), it might be the way something is talked about (as a simile, metaphor or image) or a literary device used (lists, repetition, contrasts, comparisons, quotes, etc.).

-Do you have any questions from the passage? Notice anything that is difficult to understand in the text, or a question the reader would like to ask the writer of the passage or the Lord.

-How do you see Jesus in the passage? How does this passage relate to the person, nature, character, or work of Jesus?

-How can I apply this passage to my life?

-Who is one person that could benefit from you sharing what you learned in this passage today?

Close your time by sharing prayer requests and praying.
