

Redeemer 10
Week 4 (Oct. 8)

This week at church we took some time to reflect on what God has done at our church, where he is leading us, and what he is calling us to do right now.

How have you seen God work at Redeemer?

We are so grateful for the Lord's faithfulness over the past 10 years. During our Redeemer 10 celebration, you heard the vision God has put on our hearts for the next 10 years. The dream is to continue being faithful, growing as disciples, advancing in sharing our faith, loving the city, and reaching San Diego and beyond. The first step in seeing this vision realized is by growing in faithfulness. What does it mean for you to be a part of this journey?

As you think about these two passages from Sunday, what might God be calling you to do in the present?

Colossians 2:6-7

⁶Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him,
⁷rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

John 15:5

I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing.

How can we be praying for each other?
